Fifth Leg

Of this store is like the fifth wheel to a wagon. Steers up straight, thus keeping the stocks clean.

· It's fifth leg is--

Not to carry over into a new season any garments bought for the present.

Knowing by experience that a present loss is preferable to a greater future loss which is inevitable.

4000 Yards of Dress Linens, Newly Spread Out Today

Two special purchases, averaging about 2,000 yards each, from two New York importers.

There are the "Peter Thompson" Linens (three different shades of Blue) one yard wid, at 59c a yard, which should ordinarily sell for 75c.

A fine French dress linen, one yard wide, at 50c, we ask you to compare with the best 65c grade you can find elsewhere.

A heavy oyster white linen, forty-six inches wide, at 75c.

A new mercerized linen (about 10 per cent cotton), 27 inches wide, at 35c; especially suitable for dressy frocks.

Spring 1913 Ramie Linens, one yard wide, at 50c.

The above mentioned linens come in the season's best colors including Leather, Nell Rose and Copenhagen.

Tissu Eponge

By any other name should prove as attractive. It is variously known as-

> Sponge Cloth Cotton Ratine Turkish Toweling Terry Cloth

Under any or all of which names it is a novel and charming material, sure to carry out its early promise of popularity. Used for women's suits, for dresses, for any dress purpose to which linen might be put.

White, Leather, Ecru and several blues; 35c to 85c a yard. All cotton, of silk and cotton mixed.

Crepe Meteor, $2 Yd.

Forty inches wide. We are particularly pleased with the quality, $2.00 a

Colors, Lilac, Shell Pink, Copenhagen, Maize, Light Blue, Ecru, Leather, Golden Brown, Wisteria, American Beauty Red, White, Cream and Black.

Winter Suits at $17.50 Instead of $25, $35 and $40, make it very interesting to the last of twenty-two women who come today.

Coats $10--for small women; a miscellany group of 26 coats were $15 to $30

Junior Suits $7.50--Just a few remain, but the best in black, blue or brown materials, were $15

Silk Petticoats $1.95 -- Plain and changeable Taffeta and Messaline silks. Value to make $5

Serge Suits $15--Instead of $21.50; and $20 instead of $25. Black and blue Men's Wear Serges. All sizes.

Serge Dresses $4.95--Instead of $10 Black and colored serges. Two styles, all sizes.

$25 Velvet Dresses for $10-Black and blue in sizes 14 and 16 only. Two styles.

Evening Gowns at $12.75--Instead of $15, $21.50 and $25. About twelve in group. Small sizes.

Just Out of Their Wrapping Are New Silk Poplins

40 inches wide, at $1.00 yard. And we want you to see the new shades of Tan, American Beauty Red, Royal Blue, Navy Blue, Grey, Wisteria and Black.

Visiting New York recently, silk Poplins were much in evidence in the model gowns seen in the show rooms of the various dress-making establishments. It is our prediction you'll see much of it in dressy spring affairs.

Can You Make a Kimono?

Do you want to?

Newly arrived are five patterns of the delightfully crinkled Plisse Crepe for Kimonos, and the price is 18c instead of 25c a yard.

A Foot Note

A new imported boot from "Domby" London for American women of refinement to be worn on dress occasions. Of black cravenette, button, medium vamp, medium heel; has a tip.
